

Mike Ponting- Facilitation Biography

Customers Mike has worked with:

Qualifications & experience

- BSc Hons Botany
- Business to business sales in recruitment
- Management Consultant for 8 years
- National Staff Development Manager for large facilities management company
- Worked overseas in Leadership and Youth development with Raleigh International
- Individual Effectiveness and Team Effectiveness: Emotional Intelligence Qualified
- Director: <http://www.makingthelink.co.uk>
- Member of CIPD and ILM

Areas of training expertise

- Business Development – capturing and sharing best practice
- Team development using IE/TE
- Emotional Intelligence and business performance
- Negotiation skills/ Interpersonal skills
- Leadership development
- Advocacy skills and stakeholder engagement
- Face to face public engagement skills for charities

Mike works as an associate for training organizations running business development training for delegates from diverse industries. Making the Link Ltd Mike's company also deliver training to the Charity sector. During his facilitation career Mike has delivered training and team events to many organizations and charities on business planning, skills workshops, and team development.

Personal Information

Mike is married, and has a young son and daughter. His hobbies include rock climbing, squash, running and playing the guitar. Amongst other things, Mike has climbed the highest peak in Central America, lived in the Costa Rican rainforest for 3 months, trekked over 350miles through Guyana delivering vaccines to remote villages, and driven across Australia.

